

Individual Education Account (IEA) Program 2020–21 Participating Private Schools

List updated: December 18, 2020

This list includes private schools that have been approved to participate in the IEA Program for the 2020–21 school year following the guidelines in the 2020-21 IEA Parent Handbook and IEA Private School Handbook. Private school applications will be accepted year-round. IEA funds can be used to pay for tuition or fees and required textbooks at private schools beginning on the date of approval as noted on the list through July 31, 2021. If there are errors to this list, please email IEA.Questions@tn.gov.

This list does not constitute endorsement by the department; It is the responsibility of parents to thoroughly research schools and determine whether a school meets their child's educational needs.

* For the purposes of the IEA Program, a participating private school is considered to have an inclusive educational setting if the following two criteria are met:

1. Students with disabilities are educated with non-disabled children.
2. No more than 50 percent of the students in an individual classroom or setting are students with disabilities.
